Important Disclaimer to Note:

Please be advised that due to time constraints, there may be a delay in the delivery of the Kente cloth and medallions ordered for the upcoming December Conferrals. While every effort is being made to ensure these items arrive on time, there remains a possibility they may not be available until after the ceremony. We appreciate your understanding and patience, and we will keep you updated as we receive further information.

INFORMATION FOR GRADUATING STUDENTS

Academic Honors

Undergraduate academic honors will be announced when the names are read during the Commencement Ceremony:

- Cum Laude honors is a cumulative GPA of 3.50-3.74
- Magna Cum Laude is a cumulative GPA of 3.75-3.89
- Summa Cum Laude is a cumulative GPA of 3.90 or above
- Graduate students do not receive academic honors

Graduation Disclaimer:

Documents and written pronouncement of academic honors designation and completion will only be deemed final and valid when they bear the official stamp, seal and signature of the President of the University of the Southern Caribbean and the President of the Board of Trustees.

Academic Attire

Preparing to march to "Pomp and Circumstance" requires wearing the traditional graduation cap and gown. Your academic dress will depend on the degree you will be receiving. The academic regalia consists of a cap, gown, hood, tassel and honor stole (if applicable).

Here's how to wear your cap and gown:

- a. The graduation cap is worn flat on the head, parallel to the floor. The front point of the cap should be centered on the forehead.
- b. The graduation gown should fall midway between the knee and ankle (mid-calf).
- c. Tassels are usually worn on the right side and shifted to the left upon conferral of degrees.
- d. Flowers and jewelry should not be worn on the academic gown.
- e. Gowns can be accessorized with specific regalia like stoles, honor cords, kente cloth, and medallions in keeping with the traditions of the school.
